REAL CHIMPANZEES

There has been considerable doubt as to whether "Napoleon, the Great" and "Sally His Mate" are the real chimpanzees or humans dressed up like chimpanzees. They are not humans, but are the original educated chimpanzees, the only ones in the world today, that are so well educated. This is the reason they call them the human monkeys.

See them at the Gem today, also Harold Lockwood and May Allison in "Life's Blind Alley," a five-part drama.

WILLIAM DAWSON

William Dawson was left a small fortune. He began to live magnificently. He had no idea until he came into his fortune how many friends he had. In a few years time he had accumulated considerable debts. He and his friends had literally eaten up his fortune. He had no idea how few friends he had until he had spent his fortune. If you have a small fortune keep it at this Bank and as long as you do so the world will go well with you and you will have a host of friends.

Every time you yield to the temptation to spend a dollar you weaken your will to bank a dollar.
